SITE VISIT

ATTENDANCE: Dana Laird, Chair;

OTHERS: Alan Cosby, Michael Devonshire, Bruce Beinfield, Seelan Pather, Tod Bryant, Michelle Andrzejewski

No quorum was present

The site visit at 31-35 South Main Street, consisted of Alan Cosby representative for the applicant. Michael Devonshire an architectural conservator, hired by the applicant to assess the current state of the building listed on the federal historic inventory. Bruce Beinfield and Seelan Pather from Beinfield Architecture hired by the applicant to prepare the hotel expansion plans. Tod Bryant, President of Norwalk Preservation Trust. Dana Laird, Chairperson for the Historical Commission. Michelle Andrzejewski from the Planning and Zoning Department, liaison for the Historical Commission.

The Historical Commission and applicant team were invited to the property at 31-35 South Main Street, Norwalk CT. The applicant proposes to demolish the existing building to rebuild an expansion to the SoNo Hotel. This was a walk thru of the property to assess its current state.

Sincerely,

Michelle Andrzejewski
